Eiad Saleh

Writer, Director and Producer

Multi-talented Eiad Saleh has contributed his inspiration to the industry since 2005 in various roles. As assistant director in films, as a director and producer of documentary films, as writer and creative director of TV shows, as well as scriptwriter of drama series.

Known for popular shows Sahraneen and Sahibat Al-Sa'Ada as writer and creative director, his latest work as a scriptwriter is the drama series Qari'at Al-Fingan. Now, in his role as scriptwriter, his work Al Hareefa has become a box office favourite.

When did you have your first inkling that your future might lie in writing and cinema?

It all began when I was a little kid. I had a big imagination, and my dream was to one day be an astronaut, but I never pursued that. When I was 12 years old, I started writing for a kids' magazine called Megalet Samir. There was a section for young kids to write articles, conduct interviews, and act like journalists. Maybe this is what sparked my interest in writing. Later I went on to study journalism, and I also took part in theater during my studies. This was when I became certain that I wanted to work in the cinema industry, specifically as a screenwriter and director. It marked the beginning of my journey in this creative world.

Were there any particular books and films that made an impact on you in your earlier years?

A movie that had a big effect on me when I was younger is Forrest Gump. Tom Hanks played the main character, and it surprised me. The whole time I was watching, I felt like, "Wow, I love this movie." It really influenced me, and I think it's one of the movies that made me fall in love with cinema. As for books, I used to love Malaf El Mostakbal by Nabil Farouk. Later, of course, I also enjoyed works by Naguib Mahfouz, but that was when I grew up a bit, not when I was younger.

Did you anticipate the great response to your latest film, El Hareefa?

I could never have anticipated the immense success the film El Hareefa achieved on such a large scale, becoming a box office hit. Perhaps it's because I've been in this industry for a long time, and I understand that various circumstances can influence the success of a movie. Part of it involves having a major celebrity to drive box office sales or be the standout element of the film. While I knew we had created something great, I was still surprised by the magnitude of success the movie achieved.

How did you come up with the storyline?

The idea for the film El Hareefa came to me during a discussion with Tarek El Ganainy, the producer. We were talking about the lack of movies centered around sports and teenagers. That's when the concept formed in my mind. Instead of portraying a simple teenager who achieves success, I wanted to explore the opposite trajectory – a teenager who starts with everything, loses it, and strives to regain it, reflecting on past successes. The inspiration for this idea may have stemmed from my own experiences during my school days, the people I encountered, and the life I led at school, including the football matches we played in the streets. Incorporating these personal details enhances the storytelling and helps the audience connect with the narrative.

Would you agree that its success is attributable to a fortuitous mix of a great script and concept, in the hands of the right director, and well-chosen young talent?

Of course, I agree that a significant factor contributing to the film's success is a well-crafted script, a skilled writer, a dedicated group of hardworking actors, and a producer who pays attention to all the details. A good editor also plays a crucial role; success is indeed a blend of all these elements working together. An essential aspect of the film is that, despite the actors being young and some lacking experience, with some even acting for the first time, the behind-the-camera crew, technicians, and everyone involved in the production were highly professional, experienced, and exceptionally talented. This collective expertise and dedication are what led to our tremendous success.

Do you like to push the envelope and take on controversial or challenging themes, or do you aim for easily relatable material that will flow with societal norms?

I like writing different things, and maybe contrary to what people used to advise me – that I have to choose a specific genre or theme to distinguish myself – I never believed in that. I always believed in writing novels and stories, and maybe that's why the first series I wrote was Karezet el Fengal, a horror series. Then I did a romantic comedy for Hannah El Zahed called Ouli / Ahmed. After that, I wrote a military action series called El Katiba 101, and lastly, El Hareefa. So, most of the time, I like changing and telling real stories.

Are there topics you would you like to address in the future, as a screenwriter and director?

If there are topics I'm interested in presenting, they would be related to my memories, to the place I lived in – Egypt, the people I met throughout my life and the stories I heard. I believe that writing is a way to stick to what I know, what I lived, and what I saw. Therefore, the topics I'm interested in presenting are always real, but presented in a cinematic way.

You have worked alongside many talented actors in the course of your career. Who have you been inspired by?

The actor who most inspired me would be Nour El Sherif. I worked with him as an assistant director in the series El Daly. May he rest in peace; he was a great actor. What differentiated him was his interest in teaching people working on his projects, talking to them, explaining, and giving advice. I really learned a lot from him, and to this day, I remember his teachings when working. He had a significant impact on the lives of many artists, whether behind the camera or in front of it. He was a true legend.

What are you most looking forward to about living in TMG's new community Privado?

I'm very excited to move to Privado. I think the calm environment that distinguishes Madinaty is something I need in my life. After years of living in Mohandessin, which is very crowded and noisy, I feel like I want to go to a calm environment where everything is accessible and close to me. The thing that convinced me the most to move is the future. I feel like the future is in Madinaty, for me and my family.

FOUR SEASONS NEW CAIRO CAPITAL AT MADINATY

A longstanding resident of Madinaty, American Debbie Senters moved to Egypt in 1998, and hasn't looked back. Now, completely at home here, she enjoys the company of friends from all over the world, and loves the Madinaty lifestyle.

Debbie, what inspired you to move to Egypt?

My older sister moved to Egypt in 1992 to work for a USAID project and five years later I came as a tourist to visit her and see Egypt for the first time. She loved Egypt and was showing it to me through her eyes, which sold me on the idea of trying something new for myself as well. I moved to Heliopolis in 1998, found work in my field in the construction business, rented a flat, and have been here ever since. Having a sister here to answer my questions about everything and to guide me along the way made things much easier than it might have been.

How long have you lived in Madinaty, and what attracted you to the location?

I bought my flat in 2007 on the recommendation of a friend who had also purchased in Madinaty and assured me, if I intended to stay in Egypt, Madinaty was the place to invest my money. He currently lived in Rehab and was very pleased with the compound and the TMG management. I purchased a flat in an area they were selling completely unfinished and after 2011 I had more time to dedicate to designing my flat. The next three years were dedicated to finishing and furnishing my retirement home, then I moved in nine years ago.

Is it easy for expats to fit into the community?

I would say it is. TMG has done a stellar job of providing the infrastructure needed for the community, and most services can be found through ORION at reasonable prices and the majority of the staff have pretty good English skills, which is important for foreigners here. There is still room for improvement, but it's workable now.

Are there local activities and social media groups for expats to help them meet people?

The only activity I have attended was a promo for the Golf Club. It was amazing and I hope they do more similar events. Social media is meeting a need. I am one of the admin for the Facebook group Expats in Madinaty. It's a useful group for asking questions about services, where to buy this or that, and meeting like-minded people. It is only open to expats, and we do not allow advertising for commercial or personal gain on it. On occasion we have asked City Hall to give us updates about Madinaty in English so we can let our membership, who can't read the Arabic websites, know what is new and interesting. And now City Life keeps us updated on life in Al Rehab and Madinaty in English as well. There are also various WhatsApp groups foreigners can join to keep in touch with each other and make friends.

What tips would you give expats moving to Egypt that would help them to integrate with the community and the lifestyle?

Network, network, network. Join social media groups or clubs that are based on some of your interests. When I first came, my sister introduced me to the Cairo Hash House Harriers. This is a running and hiking club that meets every week for a run or hike, and a little refreshment. This was my tribe and I learned loads from them through my years here. Perhaps cycling, music, reading, art or anything else is your activity. I'm sure you can find other people to share your interest. Besides meeting other foreigners, be sure to make friends with your Egyptian neighbours, whom you will find lovely and super helpful.

Do family and friends come to visit you here?

I have not had too many come to visit over the 25 years I've been here. I'm still hopeful though. One of the things I love about Egypt though is its proximity to Europe, which has allowed me to meet friends in different countries for a holiday.

What work did you do?

When I first moved to Egypt I found work with aluminium and glass subcontractors working on large projects. That lasted a year, but my lack of Arabic language made it more difficult than I was prepared for. I left that line of work and started a private business coordinating tours for foreigners until 2011, when I decided it was time to consider retirement.

Do you have hobbies and interests to fill your time?

My time is filled with meeting up with friends in Madinaty at my flat, or having breakfast or lunch with the ladies at any number of local restaurants. Three days a week I try to wake up and get over to the Sporting Club for my 12 lap swim and to meet my buddies who do the same each morning. And, every Wednesday is the local ladies coffee club day in Heliopolis, Rehab or Madinaty.

What makes Madinaty such a good location for you?

I lived for several years in Heliopolis, but when the time came for me to face the fact that I wanted to retire, I preferred to be somewhere quieter and cleaner, where I felt safe and could feel comfortable to live my lifestyle. Madinaty offers me all of that, and a plethora of goods and services are available within our compound, so I really would never need to leave. And, as I love to swim, having access to a good pool that is available year round is priceless to me.

Would you recommend it for other expat families and singles, and why?

If you want peace and quiet and green spaces, it is a very good choice. If you're single and looking for the nightlife of Cairo, maybe it isn't your best bet, but having said that, if you are a teacher, working in New Cairo, being close to your work might be best and with the new Suez highway and Uber, it's absolutely doable to have both.

DR. AMAL AFIFY

Enabling Our Youth

Long-time resident of Al Rehab, and dedicated education professional, Dr. Amal Afify has played an important role in the development of many children and teenagers in Al Rehab, Madinaty, and the neighbouring areas. She shared her passion and vision with us in a recent chat.

How long have you been a resident of Al Rehab?

I have lived in Al Rehab for nearly 21 years, since 2003.

What first attracted you to the area, and what do you enjoy most about the lifestyle?

I was drawn to Al Rehab by the quietness of the city and the planning and location of the markets at a comfortable distance from the residential areas. I love to walk in the calm, uncrowded atmosphere and pure environment, especially as I am a quiet person by nature.

What do you enjoy most about working with children and teenagers?

Honestly, what I have enjoyed most over these many years is improving their communication skills, and helping them build confidence. This helps in developing the necessary skills that enable them to receive and process information correctly.

Please tell us how you developed your interest in child development and what studies you pursued.

I have been working with children and teenagers since 1998. I hold a master's degree and doctorate in strategic planning and am also a certified trainer from UNESCO in Egypt. I have taken many courses in positive education as well. In addition to this, I am a training consultant to the General Syndicate of Human Development Trainers at Ain Shams University, and a certified personal skills development trainer specialising in children and teenagers.

Are you involved in any organisations or groups supporting children?

I have presented many workshops and seminars for parents and children in various places. Currently, I hold activities and seminars for teenagers through the Children's Forum, a project for education and child development in Madinaty. I am also a co-founder of Khatwa Academy, an activity center through which we also provide programs for winter and summer camps. I am involved in many awareness initiatives, including those that combat bullying and harassment.

When did you open Khatwa Academy and what does it provide?

We opened Khatwa Academy in 2012, and offer our services for children between 4 months to 10 years. This includes day care, and an academic curriculum and after-school educational activities based program. We focus on the child's psychology, etiquette and behaviour, and social relationships, as well as the academic aspects so that the child can pass the school interviews for national and international schools. We also offer medical supervision through specialized doctors and provide healthy, well-balanced meals throughout the day.

Do you arrange other activities and events for children?

I organise summer and winter camps, with scouting, horseback riding and educational excursions, as well as 'fundays', art days, and workshops through the Children's Forum in Madinaty. Our after school activities offer developmental activities, and cover time management, savings skills, effective communication, anger management, self-expression through writing, and the importance of sharing.

What advice would you offer young parents in creating a well-balanced life for their children?

Through my many years of dealing with children and teenagers I have found that the most important needs to be taken into consideration are to let children and teenagers feel important, and to improve their independence and decision making from a young age. It is important to respect the child's personality, and praise him or her. A balanced life involves a healthy balance of psychological, spiritual, educational, physical and social aspects. Importantly, raise your child with lots of love, so he or she feels secure in expressing feelings, thoughts, and emotional needs freely.

What do you consider the most important elements of early learning?

Self-expression is a very important factor for a healthy personality. A child must be in an environment where he or she can express their feelings. They also must develop respect, and learn to be good listeners.

What makes Al Rehab such a great place for raising a family?

Security is very important, and this is a key advantage in Al Rehab and Madinaty. Parents can feel comfortable with their children and teens moving safely around in the community.

Women Born to Achieve

Throughout Egypt's rich history there have been many remarkable women who have made their mark. Their notable achievements span across aviation, science, medicine, politics, and the environment. While there are so many deserving of recognition, we feel the women mentioned below will serve as an inspiration.

Lotfia Elnadi

Lotfia Elnadi was born on 29th of October 1907 into an upper-class family in Cairo and made her name as an Egyptian aviator. She was the first Egyptian woman as well as the first woman from the Arab world and Africa to earn a pilot's license. She read an article about a flying school which had just opened in Cairo and, despite her father's objections, decided to enrol. As Elnadi had no way to pay for the flying lessons, she worked as the secretary and telephone operator for the flying school in exchange for her tuition.

On 19 December 1933, Elnadi flew in the international race between Cairo and Alexandria. Flying at speeds averaging 100 miles per hour, she steered her single-engine plane to the finish-line before any of the other competitors. She received a prize of £E200 and the congratulations of King Fouad for her attempt.

Rawya Ateya

Born in Giza Governorate on the 19th of April 1926, Rawya Ateya was an Egyptian woman who became the first female parliamentarian in the Arab world in 1957. She obtained several university degrees in various fields before becoming the first woman to be commissioned as an officer in the Liberation Army, where she played an active role in the Suez War. She took her seat in the National Assembly on 14th of July 1957, after receiving 110,807 votes in her constituency. During her time in Parliament, she was a vocal champion of women's rights.

Sameera Moussa

Reduce Your Stress with a Community Lifestyle

Why do we feel more secure, more protected, and more sociable when we live in an established community? It's not a new phenomenon; in fact, the practicality of people drawing together and co-existing has shaped our history and social patterns for millennia, across the globe.

From informal clusters of homes to high-functioning residential communities, common factors have always been present. The instinctive need to protect home and family from outside dangers, the companionship and social benefits of living amongst like-minded peers, the potential to develop culture and encourage learning with the exchange of ideas, and the opportunity to establish commercial and trading enterprises to support the surrounding community and increase prosperity.

Although combining these essential elements, today's communities are a far cry from early tribal villages. People seeking to escape a stress-laden, hectic urban life are increasingly seeking out locations with a holistic balance between well-planned housing options, generous areas of natural greenery and harmonious landscaping, along with well-considered amenities and activities. Mixing nationalities, young families to retirees, all with a diversity of interests, gated communities continue to evolve, and provide a stimulating social canvas that enriches our lives.

Communities continue to evolve, and provide a stimulating social canvas that enriches our lives

SAY GOODBYE TO ROAD RAGE

How many times have you come home grinding your teeth after battling traffic and urban congestion for hours? Think how that irritation affects your mood and interaction with your family and friends. Today's communities are designed with well thought out traffic flow and accessibility to main highways that enable residents to commute and link to main urban centres and key destinations with maximum efficiency. Internal roads and pathways throughout the communities are laid out to facilitate easy access to shopping, dining, sports clubs, medical centers and services, leaving residents ample time to socialize, relax, and enjoy fitness and wellbeing activities.

MAINTAINING TIES

Having the flexibility of multiple types of housing within one development allows you to move to a more suitable space as the years go by without giving up the friends, surroundings and lifestyle you are accustomed to. From smaller apartments to spacious villas, and everything in between, singles, young couples, retirees, and growing families can easily find their perfect home within an established community, reducing any anxiety about facing disruption and loss of an enjoyable routine.

SURROUNDED BY GREENERY

The benefits of living in a healthy environment are manifold. With much of the space in residential communities dedicated to mature trees and harmonious landscaping, and professional arborists and gardeners to ensure that the environment stays pristine and welcoming, you can boost your endorphin and serotonin levels just by getting out there for healthy activities, community events, and gentle relaxation.

LEISURE AND SPORTS RIGHT ON YOUR DOORSTEP

According to the Association of Applied Sport Psychology, by engaging in regular exercise you can improve your mood and approach to life. Making it easy to maintain a great lifestyle balance, sports clubs in residential communities offer coaching and sports and leisure facilities tailor-made to appeal to all family members. An added bonus is the opportunity to make new friends and improve your social life.

CULTURE AND LEARNING

It is easy to get caught up in the rush of daily life and let your creative side get put on a back burner. Within a community you can find a lot of avenues for self-expression, through art and hobby classes, theatre and activity groups, and music lessons. These are within easy reach and don't involve travel time, making it easy to find time to nurture your inner artist.

AROUND THE CLOCK SUPPORT

Even in a perfect world things can hit a speed bump. By living in a serviced community you can reduce your anxiety levels and stress by knowing that systems and back up are in place, keeping all essential utilities and services running smoothly in the event of outages that could disrupt your daily life.

24/7 SECURITY

Beyond price, peace of mind and the knowledge that loved ones are safe and protected are top of many home-owners priorities. Urban life comes with both benefits and disadvantages, and personal safety ranks high as a priority. While living in a large city can expose you to home break-ins and burglaries, and an unsafe environment for unescorted children, a residential community offers controlled entry, along with ongoing hi-tech surveillance to monitor internal activity. Discreet and unobtrusive, it ensures that you can feel safe and free to enjoy your daily lives to the full, at home, or out and about.

Straight From The Farm

Located in the countryside of the Nubaria district, in the Alexandria Governorate, Lamar is a well-loved company established in 1985 by Alexandria Agriculture Company. The farm has been a staple in the community for generations, and until today, maintains beautifully kept grounds with mature trees and verdant greenery alongside its extensive fruit tree plantations, crop bearing fields and two large dairy farms.

Nothing can beat a personal experience, so the City Life team was thrilled to have the opportunity to see first-hand how Lamar brings its high quality milk and juice products from its pristine farm environment to the shelves of Cairo. A high point was the chance to be driven around in a trailer pulled by a small white tractor, giving us the true farm life experience.

We were impressed by Lamar's commitment to sustainability and dedication to ethical farming practices. The fully integrated operation encompasses everything from cow feed to milk production, as well as the cultivation of various crops.

The journey begins with the careful selection of highly quality feed for the cows. We saw lush fields of corn, and berseem dotted with stands of date bearing palms, showing a dedication to animal welfare that translates directly into the premium quality of milk produced on the farm.

Stringent hygiene conditions ensure that every stage of the milking process meets the highest international standards, and the milk itself is subject to testing using the latest technology. The same standards are met throughout all the packaging processes, meaning the customer can feel confident in the product they choose for their family.

At the heart of the farm lies a state-of-the-art factory, where we were impressed to see the milk and fresh juice processing and packaging with technology geared to meet the volumes required to meet the market demand for Lamar products.

We found the Lamar farm a fantastic place for educational experiences and community engagement.

The atmosphere is calm and happy, a reflection of the beauty of the area itself, and everyone we met with from the workforce of over 2000 employees was friendly and welcoming. They offer free of charge visits all year long, where visitors can learn about the process of milking cows, see how different products are made, as well as interacting with animals to create memorable and fun experiences. It is a wonderful experience for young children, giving them a better understanding of how food reaches their table.

FARM CROPS

Each crop of corn, alfalfa, wheat, and berseem is carefully tended to by expert farmers who understand the importance of sustainable agriculture practices. Everywhere we looked, we could see the effort being put into this.

JOURNEY TO FULL SUSTAINABILITY

Above all, we appreciated the seamless integration of all aspects. By overseeing every step, from raising the calves, crop cultivation, cow feed, milking the cows and processing fresh milk, they are able to ensure that every product that leaves the factory is of the highest quality and eco-friendly. This matters a lot to today's consumers, who feel a shared responsibility to work towards a greener planet.

We saw how linking the manufacturing process directly to the farming practices ensures an all-in-one flow of integrated operations, significantly contributing to the overall efficiency of the production process.

It was good to hear that eco-friendly practices are being used to minimize environmental impact, with plans in place to use a renewable energy source through solar panels in the near future. We learned about water-saving techniques, composting manure for fertilization, and how rotational grazing is implemented to promote soil health. Additionally, by using organic feed, the farm contributes to a healthier ecosystem.

The focus on animal welfare by providing space for the cows to roam and ensuring they have access to fresh air and clean water was evident in the calm air of contentment in the herd, along with their appearance of robust health. The cows were so docile and friendly it was easy to reach out and stroke them.

NEW PRODUCTS - TOM IS "THE OTHER MILK"

In our meeting with the Lamar team we were impressed to see how innovation is key in the industry. Lamar's R&D department is always keen and eager to develop and incorporate unique flavors based on consumer trends. We were invited to try several recently introduced products, including lactose-free milk, both skimmed and full cream, Biscuit Oat, Chocolate Almond, and Cookies & Cream flavored milk. The plant-based range, under the name TOM is the Other Milk, caters to a growing vegetarian and vegan market.

It was exciting to know that the plant-based products range now includes coconut milk, a dairy-free alternative that is both delicious and nutritious. We already have it lined up for some of our favorite recipes.

CAN YOU KEEP UP?

PASSKEYS

Just as we found a fool proof way to remember our passwords, the game has changed. Say hello to passkeys, the new recognition platform that will make your passwords obsolete. Passwordless sign-on is the future, or at least until something else comes along. The new login technology replaces passwords with authentication mechanisms built into your devices. You can simply use Face ID on your iPhone, Windows Hello on your PC, or the fingerprint sensor on your Android phone to gain access to your websites, apps, and services. That is, of course, provided they support passkey sign-on.

Improved security with Passkeys

Passkeys are built on WebAuthn (or Web Authentication) tech and stored directly on your device. They are supported by major tech entities because they're more secure than passwords or PINs, which can be stolen. Password managers can even help backup and sync passkeys across all your devices. By avoiding the use of passwords, users are less likely to fall victim to phishing attacks, social engineering, or bot attacks that plug in passwords captured from databases of leaked passwords.

All this will take time to implement on a large scale of course, but Apple and Google are already on board, along with PayPal.

SPATIAL COMPUTING

More breaking news on tech advances includes the rollout of Apple's new Apple Vision Pro. Sure to challenge your preconceived notions of reality, the spatial computing headset seamlessly blends digital content with your physical space. While still only accessing a limited number of apps, many routine computing tasks can be handled simply by using your eyes, hands, and voice.

When it comes to entertainment, Apple Vision Pro comes into its own. The truly immersive experience expands your movies, shows, and games up to the perfect size while you feel like you're part of the action with Spatial Audio.

Preserve memories

The family photo album can be tucked away in a drawer. Apple Vision Pro is Apple's first 3D camera. You can capture spatial photos and spatial videos in 3D, then relive the moment whenever you like, with the panorama wrapping around you.

Another breakthrough grabbing the headlines is Neuralink, Elon Musk's sometimes controversial brain chip implant mission, which he claims will create 'a generalized brain interface to restore autonomy to those with unmet medical needs today and unlock human potential tomorrow'.

Simply put, the company's goal is to connect human brains to computers to help tackle complex neurological conditions. Rival firms have already implanted similar devices, with the École Polytechnique Fédérale in Lausanne (EPFL), in Switzerland, successfully enabling a paralysed man to walk just by thinking. The procedure involved putting electronic implants on his brain and spine which wirelessly communicated thoughts to his legs and feet.

As we hurtle into new domains, fasten your seatbelts and enjoy the ride!

Areca Palm

Triangle Palms

Our Precious Palm Trees

Think of Egypt, and the image of stately palm trees will often spring to mind. Part of the landscape and culture since time immemorial, many of the varieties can be found in Al Rehab and Madinaty. Taking on the role of preserving the heritage of these graceful palms, TMG has ensured that they will continue to form a beautifying feature within the surroundings for generations to come.

There are known to be about 2600 species of palm trees, most of them thriving in tropical, subtropical, and warm temperate climates, but at least a hundred species are in danger, and nine are said to have recently died out. TMG is committed to integrating as many as possible palm varieties into its landscaping in order to protect and conserve them.

THE PALMS OF AL REHAB AND MADINATY

Spread over a total landscape area of 7,000,000 m<sup>2</sup>, there are more than 13,000 palm trees of a variety of species adding to the distinctive landscaping. Take a stroll to appreciate their stately presence.

The Royal palm, or Roystonea regia, is commonly known as the Cuban royal palm or Florida royal palm. A large and attractive palm, originally a species of palm native to Mexico, the Caribbean, Florida, and parts of Central America, it has been planted throughout the tropics and subtropics as an ornamental tree.

The Royal Palm

The elegant Majesty palm, Ravenea rivularis, is a species of tree in the family Arecaceae. When indoors they generally grow to over 3 meters, but in its natural state, the Majesty palm may sometimes grow to 30 meters in height.

The Queen palm, or Syagrus romanzoffiana is also known as the Cocos palm. A palm native to South America, it has been introduced throughout the world as a popular ornamental garden tree and is a medium-sized palm, quickly reaching maturity at a height of up to 15 meters.

Enjoy the beauty of rare Pritchardia palms. The genus Pritchardia belongs to the family Arecaceae and consists of between 24 and 40 species of fan palms from the subfamily Coryphoideae. Mainly found on tropical Pacific Ocean islands in Fiji, Samoa, Tonga, Tuamotus, and most diversely in Hawaii, these palms vary in height, ranging from 6 to 40 meters with fan-shaped leaves and a columnar trunk. The flowers and subsequent fruit are borne in a terminal cluster with simple or compound branches that in some species is longer than the leaves.

Graceful Areca palms are a genus of 51 species of palms in the family Arecaceae, found in humid tropical forests from the islands of the Philippines, Malaysia and India, across Southeast Asia to Melanesia. The generic name Areca is derived from a name used locally on the Malabar Coast of India.

The Foxtail palm with its feathery leaves, also known as Wodyetia bifurcata, is a species of palm in the family Arecaceae, native to Queensland, Australia. A very attractive palm with long, 2 to 3 meter plumose leaves with a grey trunk can grow up to 10m tall and produces large orange fruit.

Spectacular Triangle palms, or Dypsis decaryi, have a distinctive, three-sided, triangular-shaped trunk and strong, upright grey-green leaves. An endangered species indigenous to the Madagascan rainforest, some specimens can grow to an impressive height of some 15 meters in the wild.

You can also find the Canary Island date palm, Phoenix canariensis, a species of flowering plant in the palm family Arecaceae, native to the Canary Islands off the coast of north western Africa. It is a relative of Phoenix dactylifera, the true date palm, and generally grows to 10 to 20 meters, occasionally growing to 40 meters.

The Roebellenii palm, or Phoenix roebelenii, an attractive slow growing dwarf palm also bears the common names of dwarf date palm, pygmy date palm, or miniature date palm, and is a species of date palm native to south eastern Asia, from southwestern China, to northern Laos and northern Vietnam.

A common sight in Egypt, the strong, commanding presence of the Date palm, or Phoenix dactylifera is easy to identify. At the top of the tree, a regal crown is created by its arching, waxy, gray-green fronds, which can grow to be more than 3 meters long.

All a treasured part of our landscape, they are here to be admired and enjoyed as an important part of our community.

Traditions Across the Years

During Ramadan, we observe traditions that have hardly changed over the centuries. While many areas within Egypt still maintain their old customs and festivities, some traditions have sadly given way to more modern adaptations.

THE BEGINNING OF RAMADAN

In older times, the observance of Ramadan usually began by the Roeiat al Helal, or sighting of the crescent moon, with a procession that dates back centuries. The procession started off in Cairo and was duplicated in other governorates. Nowadays, there are no processions involved, as it is announced online and on national television.

THE FANOUS

For over 1,000 years, the Ramadan lantern, or fanous, has been the traditional decoration for Ramadan in Egypt. The lantern industry started in Egypt during the Fatimid era, with craftsmen manufacturing them throughout the year until the month of Ramadan arrived.

STREET DECORATIONS

The streets come to life with coloured lights, paper cut-out garlands and Ramadan lanterns for the whole month. Even in the smallest villages, the Ramadan mood is felt everywhere.

IFTAR AND SOHOUR

Traditionally, the fast was broken each day with an iftar meal, eaten at home. Nowadays, flowing with today's busy lifestyle, family and friends often join together to enjoy iftar and relax through the evening at the many venues who prepare traditional Ramadan menus. Before dawn, sohour is taken to sustain those fasting through the coming day. In villages today, the mesaharaty stops in front of each house and calls the inhabitants by their names in order to wake them up for sohour.

TRADITIONAL FOODS

Special traditional desserts during the holy month of Ramadan include syrup-laden kunafa and qatayef, desserts said to have been brought to Egypt from Syria during the Fatimid Caliphate when the caliph Muizz li-Din Allah came to Egypt in Ramadan and people welcomed him with them. Soups have long been a tradition in Ramadan, along with fuul, as a part of the staple diet of the Egyptian people.

CHARITY

Stemming from the time of the Prophet Mohamed, charity is often in the form of long tables, or maedat al-rahman, providing iftar without charge to anyone who is breaking their fast. Some of the best places to experience this tradition today are located in Al-Azhar, Khan Al-Khalili, Al-Hussein, Al-Sayeda Zeinab, and Ramses Square in Cairo.

Travellers rushing home from work to break their fast with their families are still often handed water or juice by well-wishers lining main roads and motorways, allowing them to have refreshment at hand if they are delayed. In the villages of Upper Egypt, young men often go out on the highways and sit on the sidewalks before iftar, inviting passers-by to join them.

RAMADAN ARAGOUZ

A much-loved tradition in Egypt during Ramadan was the aragouz, traditional hand puppetry where performers remain hidden behind a portable stage during the performance. Up until today in some areas in Cairo, Alexandria, and Upper Egypt, the aragouz can still be found.

FAZOURA

Everyone enjoys a good quiz or riddle, and now the phone app Fazoura can keep us occupied for hours, testing our Ramadan knowledge.

MUSALSALAT

A high point in Ramadan entertainment, every evening mosalsalat, or drama series, take over TV screens across the country. Starring the biggest names and all the favourite celebrities, they attract massive viewership as the stories unfold and captivate.

Al Hashashin, or The Order of Assassins throws us back into 11th century Persia, the rise of a group under the leadership of Hassan Al Sabah. Karim Abdel Aziz commands the screen in his personification of the religious and military leader who preached the doctrine that led to the struggle for the succession of Nizar to the Fatamid throne in Cairo that established the foundation of Nizari Isma'ilism Shia Islam.

A groundbreaking series that will capture viewers' attention this Ramadan season, The Order of Assassins took nearly three years in the works, and involved travelling to three continents just to source authentic fabrics for the costumes reflecting that period. The international team that came on board to help design the third chapter had also been instrumental in creating award-winning Game of Thrones, another period drama acclaimed for its convincing sets, costumes and artistic direction.

The name of the order stemmed from the assassinations of prominent figures and political opponents ruthlessly carried out by the group, and draws comparison with the ease with which young people of today can be manipulated by social media, affecting their ability to make rational decisions.

Create a Ramadan Mood

It's time to bring the spirit of the Holy Month of Ramadan into our homes. One of the loveliest ways to do this is with a beautifully decorated table for iftar or sohour.

Eman Essam creates beautiful Ramadan lanterns and table décor with exquisite craftsmanship that reflects everything we appreciate about Islamic art, culture and tradition. Creative and stylish, her lanterns, oriental accessories, like lanterns, placemats, cutlery holders, candles and special serving dishes add a gracious touch to any table.

Her products are handmade, using fabrics, ribbons and embroidered words like Ramadan Kareem and Ramadan Mubarak to make them more elegant.

Ramadan Kareem!

At this special time when families and friends draw together to share the joys of Ramadan, it is important to know where you can find the traditional items that make each iftar and sohour so memorable. # Chicken Sharkaseya

Ramadan is a perfect time to share this classic dish with family and friends.

INGREDIENTS

2 cups white rice, cooked
Chopped walnuts for garnish

For the chicken stock

1 tablespoon butter
1 whole chicken, 1200 gm
2 cardamom pods
2 mastic
2 bay leaves
1 cinnamon stick
1/2 tsp black peppercorns
1 large onion, whole
3 garlic cloves, whole
1 large carrot, roughly chopped
Water

For the sauce

150 gm walnuts
4 slices white toast bread, lightly toasted
3-4 cups chicken stock
1 tablespoons ghee
1 small onion, diced
Pinch paprika
Pinch cinnamon
Salt and pepper

For the tasha

1/2 tablespoon ghee
1 teaspoon dried coriander

For serving the chicken

2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon oil
Paprika
Salt and pepper

PREPARATION

Melt the butter in a large pot over medium high heat. Add the chicken and sear on all sides until light golden. Add the whole spices and toss with the chicken and butter. Add all the vegetables. Cover with room temperature water and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low, simmer over low heat (with the pot 3/4 covered) for about 45 minutes or until the chicken is cooked. Take out the chicken and set aside. Sieve the stock and remove the vegetables and spices.

To make the sauce: Place the walnuts in a large pan over medium high heat. Stir frequently until some pieces of the edges take a slightly toasted color. Place the walnuts on a plate to cool.

In a food processor, process the walnuts until very finely chopped. Process the toast in the food processor until very finely chopped. Put the minced walnuts and toast in a blender, add 2 cups stock and blend until you have a smooth mixture.

Melt the ghee in a large pan over medium high heat, add the onion and sauté until it's soft but not browned. Stir in the walnut and toast mixture. Reduce heat to low, simmer the sauce for a couple of minutes until it thickens to the desired consistency. Season with paprika, cinnamon, salt and pepper. Keep the sauce over very low heat until you prepare the tasha.

Put the ghee and coriander in a small pan over medium heat and stir until fragrant, about 30 seconds.

Remove all the chicken meat from the bones. Melt 2 tablespoons butter and 1 tablespoon oil in a large pan over medium heat. Stir the chicken with the oil and butter, without getting any color, in order not to be dry. Turn off heat. Season the chicken with paprika, salt and pepper.

Put the rice on a serving plate, arrange the chicken pieces around it and sprinkle some chopped walnuts on top. Drizzle some sauce over the rice and serve the rest in a bowl.

Kahk

Bel Agameya

International Egyptian chef, food blogger, and ex-diplomat, Nermine Mansour shares her celebration of traditional Egyptian cuisine with a step-by-step recipe for the Eid favorite.

INGREDIENTS - 80

Kahk

Kahk Dough

1 kg flour
3 tablespoons whipping cream powder or corn starch
3 tablespoons toasted sesame
1 tablespoon Rihet El Kahk
1/2 kg (500 grams) melted ghee
1 cup lukewarm water
1 tablespoon yeast
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon rose water (optional)

Agameyah Filling

2 tablespoons ghee
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup light colored honey
1 tablespoon toasted sesame

1/2 cup toasted nuts of your choice

1 teaspoon orange blossom essence

1/4 teaspoon Rihet Al Kahk

Rihet Al Kahk

2 teaspoons rose petals

1 teaspoon ground cloves

1 teaspoon ground cardamom

1 teaspoon allspice

1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Lightly toast the spices to unlock the flavors, then grind them into a powder with a mortar and pestle or spice blender. Store in an airtight jar.

Note: You can make the Agameya and Rihet Al Kahk in advance.

PREPARATION

Step 1:

Make the Agameyah. Melt the ghee in a medium saucepan over medium heat. When it becomes fragrant, add the flour, and whisk vigorously until a golden paste forms. Stir in the honey, and whisk until it is well incorporated. Lower the heat and keep whisking for 8-10 minutes or until the mixture thickens. Toss in the toasted sesame and the nuts. Let it cool to room temperature for one hour. Shape it into balls in the size of hazelnuts.

Step 2:

Prepare the yeast-water mixture. Add the sugar, yeast, and warm water to a deep bowl, or a cup, and stir very well. Then set it aside for 3-5 minutes or until the mixture is frothy and foamy.

Step 3:

Melt the ghee over low heat. The ghee should only melt and not sizzle. Add the flour to a large mixing bowl, stir in the whipping cream powder (or cornstarch), salt, and Rihet Al Kahk . Make a well in the middle and add gradually the ghee while mixing it with the flour. The flour should be thoroughly coated with the ghee. Stir in 3/4 the frothy yeast mixture and mix well with your hands. Add the remaining 1/4 of the yeast mixture, only if the dough is till dry and needs more liquid. Stir in a spoonful of rose water and knead until a soft dough comes together. Let the dough rest for 20 minutes.

Step 4:

Use a 1/2 inch cookie scoop to shape equal sized cookies. To shape the Kahk, use a cookie scoop to form cookies of equal size. Roll each scoop of dough into a smooth ball. Take a dough ball and flatten it. Place an Agameya ball in the center. Bring the edges of the dough together. Pinch the dough to seal well and then press lightly into a disc.

Step 5:

Use traditional tweezers or a stamper to create a pattern on the Kahk.

Step 6:

Place the Kahk in a preheated oven at 160 ° C for 10-12 minutes or until the bottom is golden. Transfer the cookies to a metal rack and let them cool to room temperature before you garnish them with the powdered sugar.

Storage:

Keep the Kahk in an airtight container for 4 days outside the fridge or a month inside the fridge.

Stereo Ups the Dining Game

May we tease your taste buds a little? We love exploring menus and have our hot picks lined up already. Although we would have to wait until after Ramadan, the breakfasts are high on our list, with innovative combinations and insanely generous portions. Truly the meal you need to fire up your day. We have our eye on the Stereo Omelette Roll, and the English Breakfast with sausages, eggs, beef bacon, potatoes, and trimmings would tick a lot of boxes.

Which of course, would leave no space for lunch or dinner. So, forgoing breakfast, we might head across with our friends to indulge in our favourite appetizers. Anything we can dunk into a choice of BBQ, Thousand Island, Marinara, Blue Cheese, Tartare or Honey Mustard dip is absolutely fine by us. And the appetizers won't disappoint. Fried Shrimp, Onion Rings, Nachos, Tacos,

Mozzarella Sticks, Sweet Chili Chicken Balls ... the list goes on. But don't overlook the appealing salads, perfect for warmer weather. And the range of fajitas, risottos and pasta dishes will have you salivating. Add on a great section of burgers, pizza, sandwiches, shakes, juices, smoothies, and hot beverages, along with a tempting Kids' Menu, and you have covered all the bases.

The main dishes are a must though. Hickory Country Chicken has won our hearts already, and the Smoked Caramelized Fillet would be a first option too. We would be torn between Country Seafood Lover and Grilled Salmon Steak and Shrimp if we were in the mood for fish, although there are so many great dishes to choose from.

Desserts are non-negotiable in our book, and with some amazing diet-destroyers on offer we would just close our eyes and point to anything on the menu. No spoilers here, you will simply have to try for yourself.

Omnia Afify

Defying Stereotypes

Bursting with vibrant energy, articulate and impassioned, Omnia Afify lived up to expectations when City Life caught up to chat about her life, her travels, and what drives her to get the most out of each day. Breaking the mould, she has followed her dream, and in the process, turned around the lives of the many who have been privileged to join her on her journeys to places near and far.

Describing herself came with difficulty. Intense, and deeply introspective, she dug for words. Although feeling that everyone has multiple facets, above all she sees herself as a woman who believes that life is too short for us not to enjoy it as it is, and not meet our full potential. She reached this understanding through her own personal journey, and took the decision to follow her passions, through reading and forming a book club, and through her great love, travel. Herself a wife, and mother to three children, foremost she identifies herself strongly as Omnia, an individual.

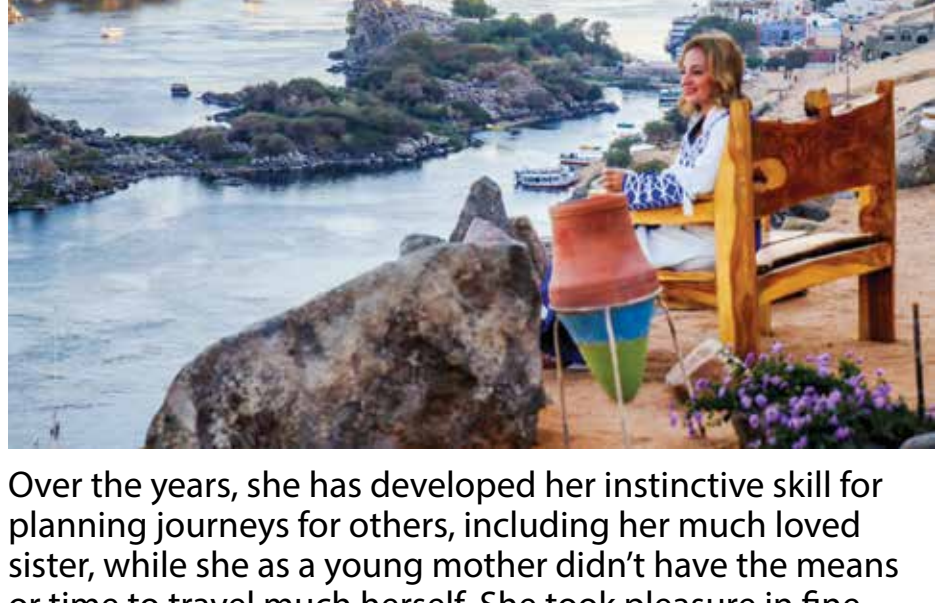

“Saving money for travel, even if it means forgoing luxuries, is always a priority for Omnia.”

Her popular trips are basically geared to women, who she believes are pushed way too much in our country. “Women feel guilty if they go out alone, they feel guilty if they travel alone, they feel guilty at the idea of having their own identity, of having their own quality time. In Egypt you have to identify yourself as a mom, or as a wife. I find it unfair; there are so many other dimensions to womanhood.”

From an early age, her imagination was captured by the immensity of the globe. Her earliest books were atlases, where she could explore and memorize the names of far flung cities in vast continents. Blessed with a father who loved to travel, her childhood years saw her going on holiday to some of the loveliest places in Egypt. Destinations like Sharm El Sheikh and Aswan, and to museums and historical sites, with the depth of knowledge and cultural detail now being passed on to the travellers who join her trips. Adding to her fascination with geography, her love of history comes from her mother, a history teacher.

Over the years, she has developed her instinctive skill for planning journeys for others, including her much loved sister, while she as a young mother didn't have the means or time to travel much herself. She took pleasure in fine-tuning minute details, and her experience built up. Upon the tragic loss of her sister at an early age, she sank into depression. The only spark of joy ignited in her was when someone asked her about making a trip.

Inspired to create trip itineraries following in her sister's footprints, Omnia threw herself into planning travel for friends and family, with no thought of turning her talent into a business. It was only when one of her children spoke so knowledgably about the United States that she took the decision to introduce them to their own country, Egypt, as she had been as a small child. Starting with the Citadel, Moez, Street and Mohamed Ali Mosque, that first trip expanded to a busload of 50 children and moms, and is now a monthly event. Further trips covered Sakkara, and as far as Luxor and Aswan, with moms, husbands and extended families adding to the mix. It was then that a friend who had joined the trip suggested making it a business.

Initially the idea didn't appeal, but as she wanted people to see the sites and sight as through her eyes, she recommended a Nubian guide called Hammou on her Facebook page. The post went viral, and Hammou reached out to her. His family guiding activities were booming, all thanks to her recommendation. Things took off from there, and Omnia started making ladies' trips in Egypt with her friends and family, who became her partners.

Her first trip outside Egypt was to Bali, a destination she has since visited 7 times, as it has become very special to her, like a second home. A long-planned trip to Italy with friends once fell through, so Omnia suggested switching to Bali, a place she already knew. They had a wonderful time. She also loves the exotic vibe of Mauritius, and glows as she describes the 1.5 km zipline, and walking with lions.

She went on to enthuse about Istanbul, and how she likes to share her experience with others, saying it is a city you can either love or hate. She loves it. She goes on to mention Phuket as well, with the most beautiful beaches in the world, before explaining that she will not take a ladies' group until she has explored a place herself first, allowing her to design an itinerary. Now, with economic restrictions, she urges people to make the most of travel in Egypt, with travel along the Nile by dahabeya, or days enjoying Siwa. Venturing abroad, she says, it is possible to enjoy destinations like Istanbul if you enjoy walking in the streets in the historical areas, and avoid shopping.

A firm believer in the importance of travel for children, she explained, “First there comes acceptance. Acceptance of other cultures, acceptance of other religions, acceptance and respect for other people. Through this you will find so many similarities that forge common bonds. Travel is a very spiritual experience. You become aware of your insignificance against the marvels of nature.” Although her trips are well-planned to the finest details, there is always flexibility to allow for the chance to flow with nature and enjoy unique experiences. The same itinerary revisited can still offer something new.

Omnia's experience in Positive Psychology Coaching allows her to create the potential for exceptional experiences, where people are enabled to immerse themselves in activities with memories that will stay. She explains that by embracing joy and positive emotions her travellers can relinquish any feelings of fear, freeing them to shake off inhibitions in a non-judgemental environment. Her trips are balanced to incorporate adrenalin boosting adventurous activity, interspersed with periods of serenity. “It is very important to feel serene” she says, adding that her philosophy is to allow people to connect with their inner child.

We chatted about places to visit during Eid, with lovely spring weather, and immediately Alexandria, with its wealth of street food, Fayoum and El Gouna popped up. Anyone wanting to roam further could consider Phuket, or Istanbul of course.

With a retirement plan to spend summers in Bali, and winter in Nubia, we can see the appeal of her lifestyle. She would, of course, find time to revisit New York, another favorite spot that needs an insider's knowledge to appreciate fully, and San Francisco. Saving money for travel, even if it means forgoing luxuries, is always a priority for Omnia. For her, anyone who doesn't travel is missing a lot. It is a journey of self-discovery, where you can push your limits. It's never too late.

Spring is here, and it's time to get out and about and discover what All Season's Park has added to its great mix of shopping and food venues. A perfect destination for warm Ramadan evenings, there is everything you need to while away the hours.

Tickle your taste buds at Cinnabon, dive into a delicious food experience at Hookah, or cater to your noodle cravings at Ichimiro Ramen. # Horse Sense

Majestic, powerful and full of grace, horses hold a special place in history, and our hearts. But owning and caring for a horse can be a time-consuming and expensive hobby. And choosing the right horse can be a risky proposition. Rather than dive straight in and purchase, why not do what so many local riders prefer, and lease from a reputable stable?

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN LEASING

The stable will help you to select the most suitable mount for your level of experience, and confidence. They will also be responsible for taking care of the horse's feeding, cleaning and exercising, as well as changing the shoes on a regular basis, and following up with routine health checks. You may be required to contribute to vet's fees, and regular de-worming, so be sure to discuss everything in detail up front. Clarify if you will be the sole leaser, meaning that you will be the only rider, apart from the groom who will cover the exercising between your visits.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT HORSE

Beginners are better to start with a mature horse with a calm temperament. Young, inexperienced horses need experienced riders. You may need to try several different horses before you find one that you can develop a bond and good communication with. Before you agree to a lease, get the vet to check the horse thoroughly to make sure the horse is 'sound', meaning with no physical handicaps, and that there are no potential problems.

TACK AND EQUIPMENT

Although the stable may be able to provide equipment, it is worth investing in a halter, saddle and bridle that fits the horse correctly and is comfortable for you. It is a good idea to have your own grooming kit, consisting of brushes, a wide tooth comb, and a hoof pick to clean away any gravel or stones after each ride. Be alert for any sign of limping or discomfort, and check your horse well before the saddle is put on.

CARING FOR YOUR HORSE

You can build up your friendship with your horse by helping with the grooming before and after each ride. Horses enjoy healthy treats, like chopped apples without seeds or cores, or clean, chopped carrots. Learn to be sensitive to your horse's mood and behaviour when you are out riding. They are intelligent creatures, and can easily pick up on your mood as well. A good partnership between horse and rider can seem that you each know what the other is thinking, and you understand one another!

LEARNING TO RIDE

The stable may have experienced trainers who can cover this, but to enjoy riding to the full, it may be an idea to do a course of lessons at one of New Cairo's riding academies.

Friendship and Bonding

Destiny brings many people across our path. Some pass along, others become close and stay a part of our lives. What are the qualities we find in them that create the chemistry?

Honesty

The truth may not always be easy to handle, but if someone cares about you they should not lie just to make you feel good.

Respect

Even if you disagree on something, a friend will understand your right to your point of view. While discussion is healthy, it must take other's feelings into consideration.

Loyalty

A friend should not be swayed by anyone or be tempted to betray you in any way. If you are honest with each other, you should be confident enough to stick up for one another.

Transparency

Who needs to be second guessing all the time? A friend should be open and real.

Kindness

This comes from the heart. True friendship means wanting the best for each other. No harsh words or selfishness.

True friendship is priceless, and can last for years, helping you weather any storm.

City Life Fans

There's nothing we enjoy more than hearing from our readers. City Life is created for you, and we are thrilled to hear about your achievements, interests, and thoughts on our community publication. # Create Your Unique Ramadan Lantern

To make these paper lanterns you will need:

- A rectangle of A4 size thick paper, plus a little extra for a handle
- Oil pastels or wax crayons
- Watercolour paint
- Scissors      • Sticky tape

Step 1

Start by drawing a design on your rectangle of card or paper, using your oil pastels or wax crayons.

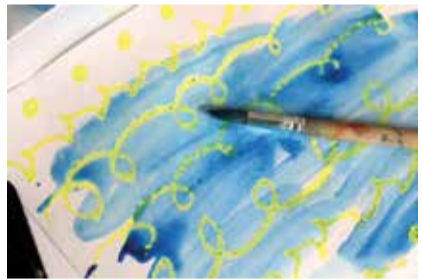

You can make repeating patterns, a traditional Islamic geometric design, crescent moon and stars, or anything you like.

Step 2

Next, using some watercolour paints, cover right over the surface of your oil pastel design.

The oil pastels resist the watercolour and you will see how your design pops through the paint.

Step 3

Once your paint is dry, fold your paper in half, long side to long side.

Then use scissors to make cuts all along the folded length. Don't cut right the way across, or your lantern will fall apart – just cut half to two-thirds of the way to the other side.

Step 4

Finally, open up your card and roll it so the two longer sides meet to form your lantern shape.

Fasten your lantern in place using some sticky tape. The cuts you made will open out to give you a great lantern design.

Step 5

Use an extra piece of card / paper to make a handle for your lantern and attach it with sticky tape.

Tip:

You can use a flameless LED candle inside to light your lantern, or string them up across your room like bunting.

Having Family Fun in Ramadan

One of the many blessings of Ramadan is the amount of time families get to spend together. There are many ways that you can make this time even more enjoyable, by spending time doing things that you can all take part in.

SPOT THE PLANTS

The game of "I Spy" has been around for years, but you can put a new twist on it by taking a stroll together around the landscaped and garden areas of Al Rehab and Madinaty and seeing how many different types of flowers, plants and trees you can identify, by alphabet.

DONATE

The act of donation doesn't always mean giving financial aid. There are so many ways you can help and enrich people's lives. Look at the talents and abilities you have, the toys and clothes that you have outgrown, and the spare hours you can use to help others within your own community. There will always be people who would really appreciate a special gesture. If you are acing your exams at school, offer to help with tuition for younger children, or offer your services as a dog walker for a busy neighbour, or even teach a hobby or skill to friends. Be generous of yourself!

START A GARDEN

Making the most of spring weather, why not grow your own plants? Mashtal has planting kits which have all the things you need to start. There are two versions, a kid's kit and a beginner's kit and you will have the chance to enjoy your efforts for months to come.

FAMILY BAKING DAY

Choose a food you all love and join together to prepare the dish. Cookies are always fun to make, and they go down quickly, giving you an excuse to make them more often.

QUIZ NIGHT

Choose a theme and let everyone write down five questions on small pieces of paper. Fold the papers and place into a bowl or bag. Make sure that the person asking the questions knows the correct answer though! Why not make general knowledge about Al Rehab and Madinaty a topic? Or a favourite sport or hobby? There are so many quiz ideas to choose from, and you can award a prize to the winner.

ما هي أهم مهام المخرج المنفذ، وكيف يمكنه منع الفارق بين النجاح والفشل؟

المخرج المنفذ هو بمثابة القائد لأي عمل درامي، لذلك يمكنه ان يحول رؤية المخرج الإبداعية إلى خطة عمل قابلة للتنفيذ، وذلك يتضمن وضع خطة عمل شاملة تجمع بين جميع جوانب العمل كمواعيد التصوير ، وطاقم العمل، وضع جدول زمني يُحدد فيه مواعيد تصوير وتنفيذ كل مشهد. و أخيرا الإشراف علي جميع مراحل التصوير مع ترتيب تصوير المشاهد و تسلسلها.

ما هي أكبر التحديات التي تواجه المخرج المنفذ؟

المخرج المنفذ له دور حيوي في نجاح أي عمل درامي، لكن تواجهه العديد من التحديات ومن أكبرها، تفريغ العمل الدرامي في جداول لتحديد اللوكيشن ، الشخصيات والتصوير سواء داخلي او خارجي، ليالي أو نهاري، لأنه يحتاج إلى مهارات عالية في التنظيم والتخطيط والتنسيق، مع التعامل على جميع الأصعدة مثل عناصر العمل، من إنتاج وإخراج ، كاميرات وإضاءة ، بما فيهم الفنيين.

كيف وجدت شغفك للعمل في الإخراج؟ وكيف كانت بدايتك، وما هي أولى خطواتك لتحقيق حلمك؟

بداية شغفي لم يكن في عالم التمثيل نفسه، و لم أهنئ يوماً ان أكون ممثلاً، بل شغفى بالإخراج نفسه كان مسيطر على تفكيري، كانت بداية خطوات أشبه بالجندی المجهول وراء هذه الأعمال..

انضمت إلى مسرح الجامعة، وإزداد شغفي بفهم كيف يتم توجيه الممثلين، حيث كان خالي الكاتب محمود الطوخي وزوج خالتي الفنان أحمد بدير دائماً ما كانوا يغذون شغفي بقصصهم عن التصوير والإخراج. كما ان والدتي الكاتبة وفاء الطوخي رحمها الله، كان لها دور كبير في تكوين شخصيتي المهنية بتشجيعها لي بجانب والدي الدكتور مدحت إبراهيم.

مع مرور الوقت، ازداد فهمي وبدأت بالعمل منذ الجامعة، ودائماً كنتُ منبهراً بقدرة المخرج علي القيادة والتوجيه، و اكتشفت مع مرور الوقت ، انه ليس تحكم ، بل السعى لتقديم محتوى هادف.

كانت خطواتي الأولى نحو الإخراج من خلال الالتحاق بكلية الإعلام جامعة القاهرة» قسم الإذاعة و التلفزيون»، واثاء دراستي ناقشت رغبتي وطموحي مع خالي وساعدني من خلال صديقه المخرج صفوت القشري والذي لي فرصة للتعلم من خلال حضور تصوير مسلسل فارس الرومانسية عام ٢٠٠٢ لمدة أسبوع، لكن واجهتني بعض الصعوبات في الحصول على تصريح دخول مبنى صوت القاهرة لمتابعة التصوير.

و بعد ذلك عملت بمسلسل «حكايات زوج معاصر» من تأليف خالي، وعملتُ كمساعد مخرج لفترة خمس سنوات مع المخرجة شيرين عادل. تعلمتُ خلالها الكثير وبدأتُ أطور مهاراتي في «سكريبت الحوار» و«سكريبت الإكسسوار»، وشاركت في كثير من الأعمال الناجحة، مثل «سارة» و«أطفال الشوارع» و«العميل ١٠٠١».

ما مدى صعوبة دخول هذا المجال؟

تعتمد مهنتنا على عوامل كثيرة يمكننا من التدرج من مساعد المخرج إلى المخرج و لكن ذلك يعتمد على عدة عوامل منها: الكفاءة والموهبة والحوظ والعلاقات، لكن الحظ والعلاقات هما الأساس، فالحظ يلعب دورا كبيرا رغم إنه يكون خارج عن إرادتنا مثل الرزق تماما، وكذلك العلاقات. و لا ننكر أيضا دور الكفاءة والموهبة لأنهم لهم دور اساسي في التطوير الذاتي وتحقيق النجاح على المدى البعيد.

هل من المهم وجود العلاقات بغض النظر عن مدى موهبتك؟

العلاقات في مهنتنا شئ أساسي وتلعب دورًا محوريًا، فالتواصل المستمر مع المخرجين والمنتجين والنجوم يساعد في زيادة فرصتك في الحصول علي أعمال جديدة.

ما هي أهم الصفات التي يجب أن يمتلكها المخرج المنفذ؟

”النظام“ هو عنصر أساسي لأي مخرج منفذ ولنجاح أي عمل درامي، فهو يعتبر بمثابة الأساس الذي يُبنى عليه العمل من خلال التخطيط والتنظيم المُحكم، وعدم وجوده يمكن ان يهدد العمل بالفشل.

ما أكثر مسلسل رمضاني استمتعت بالعمل عليه؟

نجاح العمل وحب المخرج دافعان أساسيان لأي عمل أشارك فيه، فمن ناحية، شاركت في أعمال كنت أؤمن بنجاحها وبالفعل حققت نجاحًا كبيرًا مثل «نيران صديقة» (٣١٠٢) و «خط حريـر» (٠٢٠٢) و «وش وظهر» (٢٢٠٢). ومن ناحية أخرى، حبي للمخرجين وحبي للعمل معهم، مثل المخرج أستاذ عمر الشيخ رحمه الله في مسلسل كاريوكا ٢١٠٢ الذي تعلمت منه الكثير ، وأيضاً المخرج أستاذ إبراهيم فخر في مسلسل «رسائل» (٨١٠٢) الذي اعتبره كأخ لي أكثر و أكثر من مخرج.

من الممثلين الذين قمت بالعمل معهم؟

من الممثلين الذين سعدت بالعمل معهم؛ أ/محمد رمضان، أ/محمد منير، أ/ نيقولا معوض ، أ/أشرف عبدالباقى، أ/حنان ترك، أ/مى عزالدين، أ/منه شلبي، أ/إياد نصار، أ/مرفت أمين، أ/وفاء عامر، أ/ظافر العابدين، أ/كندة علوش، أ/رانيا يوسف، أ/خالد صالح، أ/يسرا اللوزي، أ/روجينا، وأ/هاني سلامة. حالياً بشارك في مسلسل» صلة رحم ٤٢٠٢« مع إياد نصار، يسرا اللوزي، أسما أبو اليزيد، ومحمد جمعة.

من الممثلين الذين تتمني العمل معهم في أعمال مستقبلية؟

أحب العمل مع أ/كريم عبد العزيز، أ/أحمد عز، أ/أحمد السقا، وأ/شريهان، لكن بالنسبة لي أ/شريهان رمزاً فنياً استثنائياً، وكنت على استعداد للتنازل عن ثلث أجري للمشاركة معها في أحد الأعمال التي لم تكتمل.

من المخرجين الذي تفضل أعمالهم بشكل خاص؟

قمت بالعمل مع أ/إبراهيم فخر وأحب مشاهدة العديد من أعماله مثل وعد، ابن حلال، حالة عشق، أزي الصحة، خيط حريـر، ورسايل، وأيضاً أحب أعمال الأستاذ تامر محسن والأستاذة كاملة أبو ذكري.

هل كان لديك شخصاً ملهما بالنسبة لك؟

أقدر وجود أشخاص في حياتي وأعترهم مصدر إلهام، ولهم فضل كبير عليّ، ومن بينهم الأستاذ شريف عرفة والأستاذة كاملة أبو ذكري و اكن لهم كثير من مشاعر الحب والاحترام ، ومن الرغم من ذلك أفضل عدم العمل معهما خوفاً من التأثير على مشاعري الإيجابية تجاههما. كما أن لزوج خالتي الفنان أحمد بدير دور كبير، وأيضاً المخرجة شيرين عادل، التي تعلمت من مدرستها لمدة خمس سنوات، و المخرج عمر الشيخ صديقي ومعلمي الأول، وكذلك الزميل الأستاذ محمد سعيد عبد الله الذي علمني كيفية التعامل مع الناس وأن مهنتنا هي فن مش مجرد صناعة.

ما هو النوع الذي تستمتع بالعمل به بشكل أكبر؟ هل هو الدراما، الكوميديا، أم المشاكل الاجتماعية؟

أحب أعمال الأكشن، التاريخي، الكوميدي، والإثارة والتشويق لكن أفضل الأعمال التي تُمزج بين الدراما الاجتماعية والتشويق، استمتع أيضاً بالأفلام التي تُقدم مشاهد من الرعب، لكنني لا أفضل المسلسلات التي تركز على هذا النوع، خاصة تلك التي تتضمن جرائم قتل ولا أحب العمل فيها.

ما هي أعمالك الحالية؟

أشارك حالياً في مسلسل اجتماعي تشويقي «صلة رحم» الذي سيتم عرضه في رمضان ٤٢٠٢ على قناتي CBM مصر و شاهد.

هل هناك أي كتاب تحب مشاهدته كعمل فني؟؟

نعم، كتاب من تأليف كتاب من تأليف الكاتبة نور آزادار صاحبة ثلاثة كتب سابقة سابقة في مجال الرعب الخفيف، ونجحت في دمج المعاني الاجتماعية مع الرسائل الإنسانية.

آخر كتاب قرأته؟

لم أكن من محبي القراءة لكن تغير ذلك بعد زواجي من انجي عادل واكتشفت متعة القراءة، التي ساعدتني على تخيل المشاهد والشخصيات، وآخر كتاب قرأته هو«الأسود يليق بك».

شخص متفائل أم متشائم أم واقعي؟

انا شخص متفائل، دائماً أتوقع أفضل النتائج وأبني خططي بناءً عليها، مما يُعرضني للصدمات أحياناً وهذه من أحدي مشكلاتي مع زوجتي، لكنني في عملي مختلف، وأتوقع الأسوأ وأستعد له وبعتره موهبة وذكاء لأن هذا يساعدني دائماً في وجود خطة بديلة لكل موقف.

قطط أم كلاب؟

أحب الكلاب، ولا أمتلك كلباً في الوقت الحالي، لكن أبنتي كندة خمس سنوات لديها رغبة كبيرة في تربية كلب، لكنني أدرك وفاء الكلاب وإخلاصها لأصحابها، علي عكس القطط التي تختلف طبيعتها عن الكلاب.

أداب زيارة المساجد في رمضان

المساجد بيوت الله تعالى، ومن أحب الله تعالى أحب بيوته، وأكثر من زيارته فيها.

قال تعالى: { وَأَنَّ الْمَسَاجِدَ لِلَّهِ فَلَا تَدْعُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ أَحَدًا (١٨) } الجن.

التهيؤ للذهاب الى المسجد بالطهارة وحسن الوضوء، ولبس الثياب النظيفة، والتجمل والتطيب واستخدام مزبل عرق.

خلع الحذاء وإزالة ما علق به من أوساخ خارج المسجد، ووضعه في المكان المخصص.

الانتباه الى طهارة الجوارب ونظافتها، قبل المشي بها داخل المسجد.

صلاة ركعتين سنة تحية المسجد قبل الجلوس.

تجنب اللهو واللعب والجري وارتفاع صوت البكاء للأطفال، واللغو والثرثرة، ورفع الأصوات ولو بقرأة القرآن لعدم التشويش على المصلين والذاكرين.

تجنب تناول الأطعمة في المسجد (يوصى بتمر وماء فقط اثناء خطبة التراويح) وجعلها أمكنة للراحة أو القيلولة.

اصطحاب الأطفال للمساجد المتواجده بها مكان مخصص لهم وتشجيع الصبية الذين تجاوزوا السابعة وإحضارهم الى المسجد تعويدا لهم على العبادة، وتحبيهم بالمساجد مع تعليمهم آدابها قبل دخولها.

الحرص علي صف السيارات في الأماكن المخصصة وعدم عرقلة السير أو خروج سيارة أخرى من مكانها.
